“Annual Sequencing Consumables Spend” equals the total of all amounts invoiced (excluding amounts paid for taxes and shipping, insurance, customs, and other transportation costs) by Illumina to GRAIL and its Affiliates for the purchase of Sequencing Consumables on a country-specific basis (i.e., shipments to multiple countries may not be aggregated) during a given Contract Year during the Term.

“Certain Supplied Product(s)” means Illumina’s NextSeq, NextSeqDx and NovaSeq instruments, and any future sequencing instruments launched by Illumina or its Affiliates, or Sequencing Consumables, that are purchased by GRAIL for use pursuant to the Agreement. Certain Supplied Products do not include products that were at the “end of life” or “end of sale” or were announced (before January 1, 2021) to customers as a planned “end of life” or “end of sale”..

“Contract Year” means the period from February 15 of a given calendar year during the Term through and including February 14 of the immediately following calendar year during the Term.

“Sequencing Consumables” means those consumables intended by Illumina to be used to perform a sequencing process on Illumina’s NextSeq, NextSeqDx and NovaSeq instruments and any future sequencing hardware launched by Illumina or its Affiliates, and includes core consumables that are (i) commercialized or otherwise made available by Illumina to customers or Affiliates of Illumina and (ii) intended by Illumina to be used to perform a sequencing process on any such system. Sequencing Consumables do not include products that were at the “end of life” or “end of sale” or were announced (before January 1, 2021) to customers as a planned “end of life” or “end of sale”.

The following table lists any applicable discounts off the then-current list price in the applicable country.

Table 2: Universal Hardware Discount Schedule:

Tier	Instrument Credits	Discount off NextSeq 500/550(including Dx)/1000/2000 Instrument	Discount off NovaSeq 6000 Instrument
1	1-30	5%	5%
2	31-50	10%	10%
3	51-100	13%	13%
4	101-200	15%	15%
5	201-300	17%	17%
6	300+	20%	20%

Table 3: Allocation of Instrument Credits:

Installed Instrument	Instrument Credits
NovaSeq 6000	10
NextSeq 500/550 (including Dx)/1000/2000	3
MiSeq (including Dx)	1

For each Installed Instrument, GRAIL shall be entitled to a specific number of Instrument Credits as set forth in Table 3 on a country-specific basis (i.e., Installed Instruments in multiple countries may not be aggregated).

“Installed Instrument” means a Certain Supplied Product that is a sequencing instrument covered under an active service contract with Illumina and is installed in GRAIL’s or its Affiliates’ facility in a particular country.

Product and Support Services List and Pricing
